

On Tuesday the 30th of October 2012, the Parent Council of Mattocks Primary organised a Halloween Party. All the children dressed up and there was prizes for best dressed and best carved pumpkin. We played different games and took part in some Halloween activities. We would all like to thank the Parent Council as we all had great fun!!!

